Welcome Back!

We hope you all had a great half term break. This is going to be a fantastic half term with lots of great events taking place including World Book Day, Red Nose Day and our annual Spring Fair. Please look out for information in each newsletter on how to take part.

Parent Workshops

We have another fantastic schedule of workshops planned this term:

9/03/15 Writing/SATs expectations KS1

16/03/15 Extended Writing KS2

We look forward to seeing you there!

Red Nose Day- Friday 13th March

Not long now until Red Nose Day! We will be selling red noses in the school office for £1.

There will be more information about how you can take part in next week's newsletter.

London Youth Games

Online registration is now open!

Do you love sport? Aged 7 to 18? Live or go to school in Southwark?

There are over 30 sports to take part in - from athletics to weightlifting – there is something for everyone.

If you are interested in registering to become part of Team Southwark, please visit www.southwark.gov.uk/londonyouthgames and fill in the online registration form stating up to three sports that you are interested in, there is a separate form for swimming. The deadline for the expressions of interest is 5.00pm on 31st March 2015

We look forward to seeing you all at the training and trials for what we hope will be a great London Youth Games for Southwark!

Congratulations to these children who received a certificate in assembly this week.

Homework Projects

We have seen some more fantastic homework projects handed in just before half term. Here are a selection:

On Monday Zohra ran a parent workshop about homework. There were some great ideas shared. Many parents asked for more information about the computer programs and apps that we use in school, such as reading eggs and mathletics. We are planning future workshops for parents on these areas.
