More Marathon Success!

Congratulations to Sarah Halpin-Evans, our Year 3 Teacher at Tower Bridge, who completed the London Marathon on Sunday!

Such a fantastic achievement! She is raising money for Cancer Research UK.

Art Club

Our after school art club would like some donations of newspapers for their next art project. Thank you!

Whole school attendance:

Our target for attendance is 96%

We need your support in making sure your children are in school on time and every day!

Week beginning 18th April 2016 95.4%

Burgess Sports is working in collaboration with BOST to provide high quality sporting activities for local children at Marlborough Sports Garden:

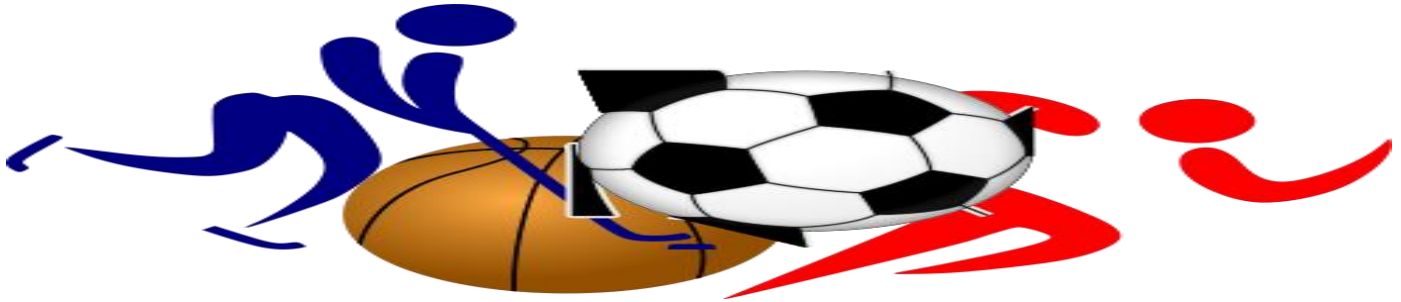

“We are happy to announce that with the great support of BOST (<http://www.bost.org.uk/>) the Summer Term Programme 2016 will start in May.

From Tuesday 3rd of May till Friday 15th of July, from 3:45 pm to 5:45 we will offer Tennis, Hockey, Football and Multi-sport that is specially design for younger ones, to develop basic and fundamental skills to prepare them for their future engagement in a more formal sport practice.

We have free places in all our sports and we are very pleased to be able to offer them to your students. No need to prove low income, all we ask is to fill in a form.

Young Marketeers

This Summer, Snowfields children are taking part in the Young Marketeers project at Borough market. On Monday, our sports leaders learnt how to become a successful market trader as well as how to grow fruit and vegetables. Over the coming weeks, gardening club will be growing produce to sell at the market!

Winckworth Sherwood Art Competition

To promote and strengthen our community and partnership links, some of our year 5 children entered an art competition organised by our reading volunteers at Winckworth and Sherwood. It gives us great pleasure to announce that Fraser, Christwin and Kyle won this competition and their art work will feature on the company's annual brochure. Mary and Charlotte the firm's representatives attended our celebration assembly and presented the winners with some lovely prizes. They also offered a Percy Jackson adventures book set to Blue Class!
