NSPCC Guidance

The NSPCC have published some useful guidance to help you decide whether your child is ready to stay home or go out alone. Whilst there's no legal age limit for a child to stay home or go out alone, it's against the law to leave a child alone if it puts them at risk. Parents risk prosecution if they leave their child/ren in a manner that is likely to cause unnecessary harm. Every child is different, so it's up to you to decide whether they're ready. Here is the link to the guidance to help you to decide
