THE 2014 CODE OF PRACTICE AND THE CHILDREN AND FAMILIES ACT 2014:

The Special Educational Needs and Disability Code of Practice: 0 to 25 years (September 2014) aims to secure, for children and young people with special educational needs and disability, the outcomes from education, health and social care which will make the biggest difference to their lives.

The views, wishes and feelings of the child or young person and the child's parents must be regarded.

The importance of the child or young person and the child's parents, participating as fully as possible in decisions, and being provided with the information and support necessary to enable participation in those decisions.

The need to support the young person and the child's parents, in order to facilitate the development of the child or young person and to help them to achieve the best possible outcomes, preparing them effectively for adulthood.

More details about the reforms and the SEN Code of Practice can be found on the Department for Education's website: www.education.gov.uk/schools/pupilsupport/sen Definitions of Special Educational Needs (SEN) taken from section 20 of the Children and Families Act 2014.

A child or young person has special educational needs if they have a learning difficulty or disability which calls for special educational provision to be made for them. A child of compulsory school age or young person has a learning difficulty or disability if they: a) have a significantly greater difficulty in learning than the majority of others of the same age; or b) have a disability which prevents or hinders them from making use of educational facilities of a kind generally provided for others of the same age in mainstream schools or mainstream post16 institutions.

A child under compulsory school age has special educational needs if they fall within the definition at (a) or (b) above or would do so if special educational provision was not made for them.

There are four broad categories of need:

1. communication and interaction
2. cognition and learning
3. social, emotional and mental health difficulties
4. sensory and/or physical needs

WHAT PASTORAL SUPPORT IS AVAILABLE TO SUPPORT CHILDREN'S EMOTIONAL AND SOCIAL DEVELOPMENT AND TO PREVENT BULLYING?

- Our behaviour policy, available on our policy page, on our website, highlights our clear structured approach to supporting children's behaviour and learning.

- The Learning Mentor's role is to support children whose behaviour and social emotional skills are preventing them from reaching their learning potential. The Learning Mentors will bring the parents, class teacher and teaching assistants to work together to break down those barriers to learning, offer advice and strategies to use at home and school.
- We use ABC (Antecedent , Behaviour, Consequence) charts to identify and evaluate children's behaviours so that we can support the child in the most effective way. • We use comic strip conversations when children find it difficult to explain situations.
- Small groups are run by the learning mentors, to develop children's social communication and turn taking skills, support emotional well-being and friendships. One to one talk and draw sessions are also available.
- Emotion boards in classes are used to identify those children who may need emotional support on a particular day; learning mentors are then able to support those children accordingly. This also helps children to recognize and understand different feelings.
- Learning mentors run a weekly siblings group for children with a sibling with significant additional needs. They also run a Friday Fun group for children with poor attendance as an incentive for coming to school.
- Anna Mulhern (Deputy Head), Laurie St Luce (Office Manager/After School Club), Andrina Phillips (Reception Teacher), Yvonne Parsons (SENDCO), Vincent Brown and Shanaz Rahman (Learning Mentors) are all trained Mental Health First Aiders.

- Children with more significant behavioural needs may spend time in the Pupil Development Centre (PDC) at certain times of the day. They are supported by the learning mentors.
- As a school we have created a positive culture to prevent bullying and tackle it when it occurs. All forms of bullying are tackled promptly and firmly, our anti-bullying information can be found in our behaviour policy.

- Medicines will only be administered at school when it would be detrimental to a child's health or school attendance not to do so.

- Only prescribed medication can be administered.
- No child under 16 will be given prescription medicines without their parent's written consent.
- Where clinically possible, medicines should be prescribed in dose frequencies that enable them to be taken outside school hours
- We will only accept prescribed medicines that are in-date, labelled, provided in the original container as dispensed by a pharmacist and include instructions for administration, dosage and storage. The exception to this is insulin which must still be in date, but will generally be available to schools inside an insulin pen or a pump, rather than in its original container
- All medicines will be stored safely. Children will know where their medicines are at all times and be able to access them immediately. Medicines and devices such as asthma inhalers, blood glucose testing meters and adrenaline pens will always be readily available to children and not locked away. Controlled drugs that have been prescribed for a pupil will be securely stored in a non-portable container and only named staff should have access.
- The school will keep a record of all medicines administered to individual children, stating what, how and how much was administered, when and by whom. Any side effects of the medication to be administered at school should be noted
- We will remind parents when medication is approaching use by date so that new medication can be brought in. • When no longer required, medicines should be returned to the parent to arrange for safe disposal. Sharps boxes should always be used for the disposal of needles and other sharps
- Risk Assessments are completed for all outings. These include children with medical conditions and details of the medication needed to be taken on the outing.
